

The Application, Selection and Election of Physician Assistant Directors at Large

OVERVIEW

Application Deadline:
August 15, 2020

NCCPA appreciates your interest in serving as a physician assistant director-at-large on NCCPA's Board of Directors. This packet has been developed to guide you in completing your application. Please read the enclosed materials carefully and submit the required documents to NCCPA by the August 15, 2020 deadline.

This is an exciting time to be involved with the work of NCCPA. As a certifying organization, we are dedicated to serving the interest of the public. We do so with a passionate belief that Certified Physician Assistants (PAs) are essential members of the health care delivery team who provide millions access to more affordable, high quality health care. The world around us is recognizing the critical role of Certified PAs and the ways in which they can positively impact health and the delivery of health care throughout all medical and surgical specialties and in all practice settings. During this time of growth for the profession, NCCPA fulfills a critical role for the profession and for the patients PAs serve.

For more information about NCCPA, please visit www.nccpa.net. For more information about Certified PAs, please visit www.PAsDoThat.net.

We are seeking two physician assistant directors at large to begin in 2021. Board members are elected for a four-year term and are eligible for re-election for a second four-year term.

The NCCPA Board meets in person four times a year and provides strategic direction and oversight for the organization in fulfillment of directors' fiduciary obligations to NCCPA, working closely with the president/CEO. Board members typically also serve on two or three committees or task forces in any given year, which generally conduct their work via conference call, email and/or at committee meetings scheduled during weekends when the Board is already convened.

While members of our volunteer Board of Directors do not receive any remuneration for their service, NCCPA does cover all travel expenses, lodging and meals for meetings of the Board and committees.

The following pages include some important information on qualifications of board members, application requirements and notification information. The application begins on page 11.

UPCOMING BOARD MEETING DATES

The Board usually meets Friday morning through midday Sunday*.

February 5-6, 2021

April 30 – May 2, 2021

August 6-8, 2021

November 5-7, 2021

Orientation: New directors will also be asked to attend a day-long orientation meeting in mid-December at NCCPA in Atlanta, GA.

Review Committee: Board members appointed to the Review Committee meet the Thursday prior to the Board meetings.

QUALIFICATIONS

During their term of service on the NCCPA Board, directors should be able to demonstrate their ability to effectively fulfill the NCCPA Board Service Description, the Board Members Code of Conduct, and the Participation Agreement (provided beginning on page 4).

Directors shall not be:

- 1) members of the Board of directors or other managing body of an NCCPA Participating Organization - those organizations for whom we have designated seats on the Board (the American Academy of Physician Assistants, American Medical Association, American Osteopathic Organization, the Federation of State Medical Boards, and the Physician Assistant Education Association);
- 2) employees of an NCCPA Participating Organization;
- 3) employees of a PA membership, certifying, accrediting or otherwise-related organization;
- 4) members of the Board of directors of any NCCPA accrediting organization (e.g. the National Commission for Certifying Agencies (NCCA)); or
- 5) immediate family members of NCCPA staff, Board, or test committee members. (For the purposes of this policy, immediate family member is defined as a spouse, life partner, child, parent, or sibling.)

In addition to the qualifications required of all directors, all PAs serving on the Board shall maintain NCCPA certification, and all physicians serving on the Board shall maintain at least one board certification throughout their tenure on the Board, unless retired. Directors shall also be required to complete annual Conflict of Interest forms to be reviewed by legal counsel.

NCCPA is committed to diversity and inclusion in all aspects of our work and endeavors to foster diversity within the PA profession and our Board. Diversity includes not only ethnicity, gender and geography but also the areas of expertise of the individuals serving on the Board.

All who are qualified, interested and willing to make the necessary commitments and fulfill the responsibilities documented in NCCPA's Board Role in Strategic Planning (p. 4), Board Member Code of Conduct (p. 5) and the Participation Agreement (p. 6) are encouraged to apply.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

Candidates who wish to be considered for a physician assistant director at large position should submit the following materials as part of their application:

- Completed and signed NCCPA PA Director at Large Application
- Curriculum vitae or résumé
- Two letters of recommendation

All materials should be submitted together to NCCPA no later than Saturday, August 15, 2020. Incomplete application packages or those received after the deadline will not be considered.

Submit materials by email to courtneyl@nccpa.net or mail to:

NCCPA
12000 Findley Road, Suite 100
Johns Creek, GA 30097
Attn: Courtney Lenharr

SELECTION

All eligible candidates will be considered. The NCCPA Nominating Committee will review all properly submitted applications. Competitive candidates will be interviewed by phone in mid-September. The committee will then recommend candidates to the NCCPA Board, who will elect one at a meeting in early November.

NOTIFICATION OF RESULTS

Candidates will be notified of the election results by mid-November.

If you have questions concerning the application process, please contact Courtney Lenharr at courtneyl@nccpa.net or 678-417-8122.

Board Role in Strategic Planning

The primary responsibility of the NCCPA Board of Directors is to set the vision, mission and strategic direction of NCCPA; make certain contributions that lead the organization toward the desired performance; and monitor progress towards agreed upon performance measures to assure the organization is and remains successful.

The Board's specific contributions are unique to its trusteeship role and necessary for proper governance and management. Board members should have:

- commitment to NCCPA and its mission;
- fundamental understanding of the role of PAs;
- knowledge about the programs and goals of the organization;
- understanding of external drivers of success for the organization;
- commitment to using data to inform decisions when possible;
- capacity to use that knowledge, understanding and data in decision making that benefits the organization as a whole;
- ability and eagerness to deal with values, vision and the long-term future of the organization; and
- ability to participate assertively and collegially in deliberation.

Governing is the primary work of the NCCPA Board of Directors, which essentially means assuming the leading role, in partnership with the President/CEO, in continuously answering three preeminent questions:

- Where should NCCPA be headed – and how should it be positioned to best serve the needs of the public, PAs, and healthcare?
- What should NCCPA be doing now and in the near term about programs/requirements, market penetration and reputation, resources, and expenditure targets?
- How is NCCPA performing in terms of realizing its vision and mission and carrying out its strategic and operational plans?

Consequently, the "products" or job contributions of the Board shall be:

1. The link between the organization and its stakeholders. The Board is accountable as trustees to the public. This includes a role as guardian of the vision and values of the organization, both currently and in the future. As individuals, Board members are also accountable for ensuring that the views, beliefs, values and interests of the stakeholder groups they know (including PAs and others) are considered in the Board's deliberations whenever relevant. The interest of the public is the priority when there is a conflict between the public interest and that of other stakeholders.
2. Protection of the financial position of the organization through thoughtful consideration of the fiscal implications of decisions, the selection and oversight of professional investment managers and external auditors, and periodic review of financial statements and reports.

Board Member Code of Conduct

The Board expects of itself and its members ethical and businesslike conduct. This commitment includes proper use of authority and appropriate decorum in group and individual behavior when acting as Board members.

1. Board members must represent unconflicted loyalty to the interests of the organization. This accountability supersedes any conflicting loyalty such as that to professional or interest groups and membership on other Boards or staffs. This accountability supersedes the personal interest of any Board member acting as an individual consumer of the organization's services. Board members must assure that the organization continues to place the best interests of the public first in all policies and programs, recognizing that the organization is a "quasi-public" one, engaged in credentialing activity that both serves the interests of the public and is important to the careers of individual PAs, and must always assure that credentialing uses reasonable criteria and fair procedures.
2. There must be no self-dealing or any conduct of private business or personal services between any Board member and the organization except as procedurally controlled to assure openness and competitive opportunity. To be considered for employment or paid consultancy with the organization, a former Board member must have been off the Board for a minimum of one year before the Board member is eligible to apply. Current Board members shall not be considered for employment or paid consultancy with the organization. (See Participation Agreement.)
3. Board members may not attempt to exercise individual authority over the organization except as explicitly set forth in Board policies.
 - A. Board members' interaction with the President/CEO or with staff must recognize the lack of authority in any individual Board member or group of Board members except as noted above.
 - B. Board members' interaction with the public, press or other entities must recognize the same limitation and the similar inability of any Board member or Board members to speak for the Board other than the Chair of the Board and the President/CEO.
 - C. Board members will make no judgments of the President/CEO or staff performance except as that performance is assessed against explicit Board policies by the official process.
3. Subjects for possible Board action should be sent to the Chair of the Board, with copies to the President/CEO and Chair Elect. Administrative concerns should be sent to the President/CEO, with copies to the Chair of the Board and Chair Elect.
4. Board members should protect the confidentiality of non-public NCCPA information. Board members should treat any Board or Committee materials shared with them in connection with Board or Committee meetings as presumptively confidential, unless such information has been publicly disclosed. Board members must refrain from discussing confidential Board, Committee, or NCCPA information with third parties, including family, friends, and colleagues, as well as with NCCPA staff whose roles would not ordinarily expose them to the information.

Board members must abide by the Participation Agreement and comply with the Prohibition Against Harassment and Discrimination and NCCPA Board Member Use of Social Media.

NCCPA Participation Agreement

Terms of Participation for NCCPA Directors and Committee Members

1. Duty of Care

An NCCPA director or former director serving on a Board Committee must discharge their duties, including their duties as a director, an officer, and/or a committee member (collectively, "Volunteer Leaders"):

- a) in a manner the Volunteer Leader believes in good faith to be in the best interests of NCCPA and its mission, and
- b) with the care, including reasonable inquiry, a prudent person would exercise in similar circumstances.

An NCCPA Volunteer Leader may rely upon information provided by NCCPA officers, employees, experts, consultants, and committees in determining what action is in the best interests of NCCPA and its mission.

A director may receive and consider information from the director's participating organization concerning the opinions and pertinent policies of that organization regarding a particular matter before NCCPA. However, each NCCPA director must vote in a manner that reflects the director's good faith determination that the vote is in the best interests of NCCPA and its mission. Allowing outside interests, including those of a participating organization, to influence a director's vote violates the director's fiduciary obligations to NCCPA.

As a corollary, NCCPA Volunteer Leaders may not act at the direction of any third party including a director's participating organization. Volunteer Leaders should report to NCCPA any attempts to unduly influence their actions as a Volunteer Leader of NCCPA or their vote on any matter before NCCPA.

2. Duty of Loyalty

An NCCPA Volunteer Leader owes a duty of loyalty to NCCPA. In accordance with that duty, an NCCPA Volunteer Leader may not:

- a) disclose confidential information of NCCPA;
- b) compete with NCCPA;
- c) act on behalf of a person or entity that competes with NCCPA;
- d) usurp a business opportunity of NCCPA;
- e) assist another person or entity to usurp a business opportunity of NCCPA;
- f) obtain secret or unfair profits through a transaction with NCCPA; or
- g) take actions as a Volunteer Leader that place personal interests (including those of family members or employers) before the Volunteer Leader's obligations to NCCPA; or
- h) publicly take positions against or disagree with statements, policies, or positions of NCCPA.

3. Disclosures of Potential Conflicts of Interest

An NCCPA director must have undivided allegiance to the NCCPA and its mission, as must a Committee member with respect to matters before the Committee. Therefore, an NCCPA Volunteer Leader must disclose any business, professional, or personal interest in a matter before the NCCPA Volunteer Leader participates in any decision-making or takes any action on behalf of NCCPA regarding that matter.

(a) Potential Financial, Business, or Personal Conflicts

1. An NCCPA Volunteer Leader who has or may have a financial, business, or personal interest in any matter before the NCCPA or a committee of NCCPA must disclose the actual or potential conflict in accordance with the process set forth later in this Agreement. Examples of relationships which raise potential conflicts of interest and must therefore be disclosed include the following:

- a. The NCCPA Volunteer Leader owns stock or has any other financial interest in an entity which could be affected by a decision or action of NCCPA – or a direct competitor of such entity.
 - b. The NCCPA Volunteer Leader is an officer, director, committee member, or employee of, serves as a consultant to, or has a close personal relationship with, any PA organization or other entity or person that could be affected by a decision or action of NCCPA – or a direct competitor of such entity. A former teacher-student relationship, former colleague relationship, or current service on the same board or committee or in the same organization as an individual who could be affected by a decision or action of NCCPA does not, standing alone, constitute a conflict of interest, unless the Volunteer Leader’s decision-making would be influenced by the Volunteer Leader’s relationship with the individual. Such relationships should be disclosed, however, as a potential conflict of interest.
 - c. The NCCPA Volunteer Leader receives a payment, gift, or anything else of value greater than $250 per year from an entity or person that could be affected by a decision or action of NCCPA – or a direct competitor of such entity.
 - d. The outcome of a Board action could result in a financial benefit or harm to the NCCPA Volunteer Leader or to a member of the Volunteer Leader’s immediate family.
2. An NCCPA Volunteer Leader anticipating entering into any relationship of the sort described above within one year after NCCPA (or, in the case of a former director serving on a Committee, the NCCPA Committee) has made a decision or taken an action which might be deemed to bear on that relationship must disclose the anticipated new relationship to the Board.
 3. An NCCPA Volunteer Leader may not directly or indirectly conduct or assist or participate in conducting a review program designed to prepare PAs for any NCCPA examination during, and, in the case of NCCPA directors, for two years following, the Volunteer Leader’s tenure of NCCPA service. This prohibition does not bar Volunteer Leaders from teaching at accredited schools offering a PA degree, but it does prohibit serving as a paid or unpaid consultant, employee, director, officer or owner for any program designed to prepare PAs who have completed their PA school coursework for PANCE, PANRE, or CAQ examinations.

(b) Potential Conflicts Relating to Participating Organizations

1. An NCCPA Volunteer Leader may not concurrently serve as an employee or a member of the Board of Directors or similar governing body of any participating organization, or any other national or international PA-related organization that the NCCPA Board of Directors deems to present a potential conflict with the Volunteer Leader’s service to NCCPA.
2. An NCCPA Volunteer Leader must vote in the best interests of NCCPA – not the participating organization or a third party.
3. An NCCPA director who is aware that a proposed NCCPA action would be in direct conflict with clearly articulated policy of the participating organization must disclose the existence of the conflicting interest, and all facts of which the director is aware regarding the matter at issue, when the matter is first raised before NCCPA or an NCCPA committee.

(c) Disclosure Process

1. Disclosure of any actual or potential conflict of interest must be made as soon as the actual or potential conflict becomes known by the NCCPA Volunteer Leader.
 - a. Volunteer Leaders shall annually complete the NCCPA Disclosure Questionnaire, on which all actual or potential known conflicts must be disclosed. Such disclosures will be summarized on a Disclosures Report delivered to the Board Chair who shall identify – in consultation with the involved Board member and others, as needed – the recommended approach to management of any potential conflicts. The Board will be asked to review and approve or amend that Disclosures Report annually, thereby taking overt action that acknowledges awareness of all disclosures and satisfaction with the means through which all potential conflicts of interest will be addressed.

- b. If new or previously unrecognized conflict arises during a meeting, the disclosure must be made to the participants in that meeting. By majority vote, the voting members of the group convened (be it the Board or a committee) shall determine whether the Volunteer Leaders must recuse himself or herself from discussion and/or from voting on the matter. The disclosure and the decision regarding its resolution shall be recorded in the minutes of that meeting, which shall be shared with the Board Chair and President/CEO. If the matter was addressed in a committee meeting and has any bearing on ongoing or future action or decision-making, the issue shall then be addressed in the same manner as disclosures of matters between meetings.
 - c. If a new or previously unrecognized conflict arises between meetings, the disclosure must be made to the Board Chair and to the President/CEO who shall document for the Board's review the disclosure and the Chair's recommended means for managing that conflict. The Board shall be asked to approve or amend the recommendation of the Chair prior to or in conjunction with its next meeting.
2. Disclosure of a possible conflict of interest does not necessarily disqualify the NCCPA Volunteer Leader from participation in a decision or action. Rather, it enables the Board to determine the appropriate response. In some instances, it will turn out that there is no conflict at all. In others, disclosure of the relationship may suffice. In still others, the NCCPA Volunteer Leader may be asked not to vote on an issue or not to play any role whatsoever in the discussion, decision or action. The specific response will be determined based on the nature of the relationship, its potential for affecting the NCCPA director's undivided loyalty to NCCPA, the significance of the NCCPA decision or action, and any other relevant factors. The final authority on all matters involving potential conflicts of interest is the Board.
 3. For purposes of this policy, if the Board Chair has a potential conflict of interest, any disclosures or recommendations that would otherwise be made to or by the Board Chair shall be made to or by the Immediate Past Chair.

(d) Obligations Following Board Action

1. Once approved by the NCCPA Board of Directors, a transaction or other Board act must be accepted and supported by all directors, including those who may have had a conflict of interest regarding the matter at issue.
2. All Volunteer Leaders, including those who may have had a conflict of interest, must maintain the confidentiality of NCCPA deliberations unless the Board of Directors or Committee expressly determines deliberations to be non-confidential.

Confidentiality

In connection with a Volunteer Leader's service to NCCPA, the NCCPA Volunteer Leader will be exposed to highly confidential information regarding NCCPA and its activities, which may include but is not limited to test materials, information related to test materials, data collected from examinations and surveys, and other candidate and/or certificant information, data regarding pass/fail percentages on examinations, audit results, internal memoranda, financial reports, personnel information, confidential information of third parties provided to NCCPA under an obligation for NCCPA to maintain its confidentiality, and other materials, records, minutes, or data of a confidential nature (collectively, the "Confidential Information"). NCCPA Volunteer Leaders should treat any Board or Committee materials shared with them in connection with Board or Committee meetings as presumptively Confidential Information, unless such information has been publicly disclosed.

NCCPA Volunteer Leaders also have an obligation not to breach attorney-client privilege by disclosing to others (including NCCPA staff without a business need to know) any privileged communications that the Volunteer Leaders have with NCCPA's legal counsel or any legal advice that the Volunteer Leaders receive from the NCCPA's legal counsel in their capacity as Board members.

To protect the Confidential Information, the NCCPA Volunteer Leader must promise not to make copies of, discuss, disclose, remove from a review or testing site or the NCCPA offices, or otherwise disseminate, or assist or permit others to copy, discuss, disclose, remove from a review or testing site, or otherwise disseminate, any Confidential Information and must promise not to use the Confidential Information for any purpose whatsoever except directly in connection with the Volunteer Leader's service to NCCPA. The duty to protect NCCPA Confidential Information includes refraining from discussing confidential Board or Committee information with family, friends, colleagues, and others, as well as with NCCPA staff whose roles would not ordinarily expose them to the information. Further, this promise of confidentiality shall be in effect during the tenure of the NCCPA Volunteer Leader's service to NCCPA and at all times thereafter. At the conclusion of the NCCPA Volunteer Leader's service on the NCCPA Board or Committee, the Volunteer Leader shall return to NCCPA all originals and copies of any material containing Confidential Information or other work product or property of NCCPA and shall delete from the Volunteer Leader's personal computer or other electronic storage devices all such non-public information. The NCCPA Volunteer Leader shall execute an attestation to NCCPA that the Volunteer Leader has fully complied with these obligations.

AGREEMENT

The undersigned, having read and understood the above Terms of Participation, hereby agrees to such Terms, as well as to the following:

1. Breach of Confidentiality

The undersigned acknowledges that a breach of any of the above promises of confidentiality could result in irreparable damage to NCCPA and its mission, as well as to the PA profession and the public, for which a remedy at law will be inadequate, and the undersigned agrees that this promise may be enforced by an injunction. I agree that any dispute under this Agreement shall be submitted at the initiative of either party to mandatory arbitration before a single arbitrator conducted pursuant to the Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association, or its successor, then in effect. The arbitration shall be held within forty (40) miles of NCCPA's headquarters in Johns Creek, Georgia. The arbitrator is empowered to grant damages or injunctive relief, and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and may be entered as a judgment in any court of the State of Georgia.

2. Work for Hire/Assignment

The undersigned, who currently provides or shall provide services to NCCPA as an officer, director, committee member, consultant, or agent in which capacity the undersigned will prepare and contribute certain materials for use by NCCPA and receives compensation in return, hereby agrees that any and all original material contributed by the undersigned shall be deemed to be a work made for hire for NCCPA. To the extent that such contribution is not deemed to be a work made for hire under the United States copyright laws, or is not similarly treated under the copyright laws of any other country, the undersigned hereby assigns to NCCPA all right, title, and interest in such contribution, including the right to sue for infringement, and agrees to execute and deliver such documents and perform such other acts as NCCPA may need in applying for, perfecting, or evidencing, its intellectual rights in such materials. At the conclusion of the undersigned's service to NCCPA, or at any time upon NCCPA's request, the undersigned shall return to NCCPA all originals and copies of any material containing work product or property or confidential information of NCCPA and shall delete from the undersigned's personal computer or other electronic storage devices all such non-public information. The undersigned shall execute an attestation to NCCPA that the undersigned has fully complied with these obligations.

3. Hold Harmless

The undersigned acknowledges and agrees that the decision to participate in NCCPA activities, including, but not limited to, attending meetings or traveling to any destination in support of those activities, is completely voluntary. The undersigned hereby agrees to hold NCCPA, and its officers, directors, members, employees and agents, harmless from any complaint, claim or damage arising out of or in connection with any attendance at, travel to, or participation in, any and all NCCPA activities and assumes the risk of engaging in such activities. This hold-harmless agreement does not constitute a waiver of any rights of indemnification or insurance provided in the NCCPA Bylaws.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH MY OBLIGATIONS AS AN NCCPA VOLUNTEER LEADER, I HAVE READ AND UNDERSTOOD THE ABOVE TERMS OF PARTICIPATION, AND I HEREBY AGREE TO BE LEGALLY BOUND BY THEM.

Provided here for information only.
To be signed only after election to the Board.
