

Linda Delaney, MPAS, PA-C

Linda Delaney joined the Board of Directors of the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants (NCCPA) in January 2018 as a PA Director at Large.

Delaney practices internal medicine at Parkland Health and Hospital System in Dallas, Texas, where she provides leadership and oversight to PAs and nurse practitioners.

Delaney has extensive experience in leadership as an elected member of state and national boards. She has served as president of the Texas Academy of PAs, as director at large for the American Academy of PAs and as a governor-appointed member to the Texas PA State Medical Board. Presently, she is on the leadership team of Parkland's Advanced Practice Provider Council. She also serves on the PA Standardization and Review Committee.

Delaney holds Bachelor's Degrees from Baylor University (Biology) and from the University of Texas Southwestern School of Health Professions. She also earned a Master's Degree in Physician Assistant Studies from the University of Nebraska College of Medicine.